Press Note:

First Annual General Meeting (AGM) in London,

Fairlop Waters, London

Telugu Association of London (TAL), UK was successfully concluded its first Annual General Meeting (AGM) on 7th December 2008 at Fairlop Waters recreation centre in London.

The AGM was presided by founder president Dr. Ramulu Dasoju, then founder committee B. Rama Naidu, general secretary, Sridhar Vanam, treasurer and Mahesh Kumar Chadawalada, cultural secretary.

After president's welcome address, general secretary, cultural secretary and treasurer presented their respective reports, which were approved. From its inception TAL is working for the Telugu community living in and around London and established as most active Telugu community organisation in UK. Based on the review of 4 years TAL activities, AGM agreed to focus on local area activities to reach out the Telugu community and call for an action plan to be worked out by the newly elected Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee.

New TAL constitution and bye-laws were drafted and presented by B. Rama Naidu for the AGM's approval. The amendments and suggestions proposed by Mr. Madhava Turumella, Surya Kandukuri and Satyender Pagadala were discussed and they were approved by the AGM.

As per the constitution, new Board of Trustees was announced. B. Rama Naidu founder member and general secretary has been nominated as permanent trustee. Life members Dr. Govardhan Reddy, Prabhakar Kaza, and Ramana Rao Nama who have been contributing and supporting TAL from its inception, were elected as Trustees for 4 years term.

TAL has successfully completed its first elections in (11-Oct-2008) after its formation. The election results were announced by Dr. Venkatesham Guduguntla, a GP from London who acted as the election officer and conducted the oath for the new Executive Committee. AGM has elected Madhav Turumella as literary secretary an elected position was not filled during the elections. The AGM has congratulated all new committee members on their unanimous election.
