

Balakrishna For London On Ugadi

Published Date : 09-Mar-2012 22:00:00 GMT

The Ugadi festival is a very important occasion for all Telugus as it marks the entry of New Year traditionally. Usually, many would prefer to spend this occasion with family members and near and dear ones. However, Nandamuri Balakrishna has got other plans this Ugadi.

He is all set to go to London around that time. Well, Balayya has been invited by the Telugu Association of London (TAL) as the chief guest for their 'Ugadi Sambaralu'. The event is also marked by some entertainment programs like songs, skits etc. Mostly, many are showing interest because Balayya is coming.

The event is happening on March 31st so the inside talk is that Balayya would be at Hyderabad on actual Ugadi festival ie March 23rd but he would take off to London the next day or around 30th. Usually, a lot of this stuff happens in the USA but Balayya's presence in the UK is causing a different feeling.

Related Articles

- Cherry hurt in shooting, packs up for 4 weeks
- Lawrence Feels Like Ram Gopal Varma
- Censor Board Afraid Of Collection King
- Manoj Patches Up Chiru And Mohan Babu
- Mahesh Babu's Film Facing Troubles
- Why Aunties Seduce Young Boys?

Latest News

- Is Beautiful Mother Soiling Her Daughter?
- Photo Feature: Mind Blocks In Black And White
- Tendulkar rubbishes retirement speculations:...
- Balakrishna For London On Ugadi
- Dy CM meeting: Spiritual or political?

Advertisement

Advertisement

Advertisement